This book has up-to-date information to help you get the most out of your journey to Beijing in 2008. There are local attractions, hundreds of fantastic local restaurants, hotels, bars, and shopping centers to guide you no matter which section of Beijing you are staying. To help travelers communicate with taxi drivers and others who don't speak much English, this book comes in bilingual form in English and Chinese for all the hotels, restaurants, and attractions. Travelers can simply circle the place they want to go and arrive with confidence. Also included are tips for planning your trip, doing business in China, and other useful information. Although this book mainly focuses on business and leisure travelers, it also has a section for budget conscious travelers who want to enjoy Beijing's ancient culture and charming scenery.
